Re: Public Records Request dated June 12, 2018

Dear Ms. McRae:

Please find attached the information that was provided to me regarding felony defendants that were being held within the county for trial, grand jury action, or extradition for the term of court beginning the 5th Monday of April, 2018. This list was received May 1, 2018. Also attached is the transcript of the Jail List that Judge Jim Pounds went over in court on May 1, 2018.

Sincerely,

Donna H. Dill

CIRCUIT COURT OF TISHOMINGO COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI

JAIL LIST

TRANSCRIPT OF THE JAIL LIST, BEFORE THE HONORABLE JIM POUNDS, CIRCUIT JUDGE, FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF MISSISSIPPI, AT THE TISHOMINGO COUNTY COURTHOUSE, ON THE 1ST DAY OF MAY, 2018.

THE COURT: Today is May the 1st of 2018 in Tishomingo County. This is the first week of a two-week term.

Last Friday I instructed them to pull a jail list, which I went over pursuant to the new rule that the Court shall look and see anybody that's been in jail for more than 90 days and make a determination as to why they're there to speed the process.

I have obtained a jail list and there's seven on the list that appear to have been in jail more than 90 days.

Jessica Morris is represented, I have determined, by Mr. Tyler Moss. It is set for Wednesday, May the 2nd. Mr. Moss is supposed to be here and he thinks he has it worked out.

Number two is Robert Hood represented by Clay Nails. And that is set for May the 7th, Monday of next week. Mr. Nails is coming tomorrow to hopefully work it out.

Jonathan Hamm, I believe is here, and I believe we are working that out after lunch.

Gregory Fair is John White's case and Mr. White is set on the docket as working it out.

Kenney Ewing is on the docket for May the 9th with attorney Melanie Dobbs, who's been in contact with Mr. Kyle Robbins and they're working on it.

Jeremy Shearon, S-H-E-A-R-O-N, is on the docket for April the 30th. I don't recall about that one.

MR. ROBBINS: Who is that, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Jeremy Shearon.

MR. ROBBINS: He was here yesterday.

Mr. White represents him. And it's the first time on the docket, that domestic violence charge. He has an offer, but I'm not sure. We're working on it, but I'm not sure what the status is.

THE COURT: And the last one is Casey Parsons and he pled guilty, I believe, yesterday.

I'm going to ask Ms. Donna Dill, if she would, to place this in the minute book showing that we did attempt to comply with the rules to make sure nobody had been there and overlooked.

That will conclude this matter.
